

Tuffour Group Launches NEW "Reavley" Gift Collection

Proud of the rich heritage at our flagship store, Reavley Chemist in Burford, and keen to share its wonderful history with visitors and the rest of our group, we are delighted to announce a NEW collection of Reavley Chemist branded merchandise available in store and online this month!

Featuring our famous Reavley Chemist shop front logo and "Proud to be England's oldest pharmacy", our new range of textiles includes a classic washbag, zipped coin purse, hot water bottle cover and shoulder 'messenger' style bag suitable for smaller laptops and tablets as well as other paraphernalia. All crafted from durable 100% dark navy cotton and embellished with golden thread embroidery, these useful and practical products make wonderful gifts or mementoes of a visit to Burford.

Our new feature-logo notebook is crafted with fine quality lined paper and a soft-touch cover with gold foil-blocked belly band detailing the pharmacy history, as seen on our brass plaque at the front of the shop. A matching Reavley Chemist brand boxed pen is also available.

Hand crafted from purest silk twill, the Reavley Chemist silk square scarf is generously sized at 80cm and comes with hand rolled edges and a presentation box. In darkest navy with a feature gold print logo this scarf is sure to be a wardrobe favourite.

We will soon be launching our range of Reavley Chemist Traditional Remedies, including our famous hand cream, all created from the original 1899 recipe book remedies still held on site.
